

OUR THREE ZONES OF HAND HYGIENE

Recognising the difference between a Patient Zone (red), a Clean Healthcare Worker Zone (green) and a Healthcare Worker Zone (yellow) is essential for determining when hand hygiene is required. Hand hygiene between these areas will minimise the level of microbial burden on patient care equipment, vehicles and frequently touched areas. Follow these simple steps to prevent cross infection between patients and improve overall staff safety.